

First Grade Flash

November 4-8, 2019

Language Arts:

This week the class will be reading the fiction story The Big Circle and the comprehension focus is inferencing and sequencing. We will learn about long o words and introduce contractions.

The students will be continuing to write narrative small moments. Then we will be editing and publishing one of the small moment stories.

Math:

The class will be telling time to the half-hour and working on a review for a quiz on Friday. A review will come home on Thursday and a short quiz will be on Friday over number patterns, odd and even numbers, and using the number grid to add and subtract numbers.

Just a Reminder:
