

First Grade Flash

February 4-8, 2019

This week the class will be continuing to work on the same story from last week as well as the same math skills due to our snow days!

eLearning:

Please turn in all Day 1, 2, 3, and 4 work by Friday!

Language Arts:

The class will be reading the last story in Unit 3 this week. The story is called Where Are My Animal Friends?. The students will be drawing conclusions and using context clues while reading the story. The grammar skill is the verb tenses past and present. The students will be finishing up Opinion Writing this week.

Math:

The students will be finishing up Chapter 5. Please look for the review packet on Wednesday and the test will be Thursday.

Important Dates:

February 7: Learningsphere Open House 2:30-5:30pm
February 8: eLearning Due
February 14: Friendship Party at 1:30pm-2:10pm
February 15-February 18: No School President's Day
March 9: Young Author's Conference

Winter Fest Class Baskets:

Please bring something in to donate for your class basket.
Each class has a different theme.